Tribute of Respect: Hall of Protection Lodge No. 8, A.L.U.W.

In forming our estimation of a man we should strive to dispel any prejudice that might exist in our minds, and in fairness and justice weigh his good and bad qualities and condemn or applaud as the scales may turn.....If a man's heart is right his life cannot be far wrong. In forming our conclusion as to BRO. W.B. NICKS' character, let us not place too great a stress on his particular views on some matters with which we differed from him, but let us look to the laudable qualities of his heart. Whatever may have been BRO. NICKS' faults he had a heart filled with noble, generous and charitable impulses....Therefore, be it Resolved, That by the death of BRO. W.B. NICKS this lodge has sustained a lamentable and grievous loss....That we remember the widow and orphans of our esteemed brother....

Horrible Homicide: A horrible wife murder was committed about 6 miles southwest of Blanche, just over the AL line in Limestone county. JOHN H. BAILES, aged about 25 years, and his wife ALICE, being unable to live harmoniously together, separated, she returning to her mother MRS. LOVELAP. JOHN soon became convinced that single blessedness did not suit him and a week ago last Tuesday he went to the field in which his wife and her mother were at work and asked her to once more trust to his strong arm for support. She declined to grant his request, saying that she had become convinced by experience that they could not live together peacefully, as man and wife should, and was resolved not to try again. This refusal caused BAILES' anger to arise, and he told her if she would not live with him he would cause her some trouble. He forthwith proceeded to carry his threat into execution by drawing his pistol and shooting her three times, from the effect of which she died the day following. He also shot at his mother-in-law. BAILES has been arrested and incarcerated in the Athens jail.

Horrible Homicide: In Elkton, Giles County. Intelligence was received in Fayetteville Tues. of a terrible murder at the above named place, by which FOSTER PATTERSON, son of JOHN C. PATTERSON formerly of this county, lost his life at the hands of an old man named HANNIBAL SCRUGGS.

The particulars, as told to us, are as follows: BEN PATTERSON, brother of the murdered man, was engaged to be married to SCRUGGS' daughter, a charming young lady about eighteen years of age; the time for the consummation of the looked for event arrived, the preliminaries being arranged before, but the arrival of the time didn't bring in its train the groom PATTERSON had departed early that morning for Texas.

SCRUGGS formed a resolution to avenge his daughter. He patiently waited, feeling that time which sets all things even, would at last, afford him the coveted opportunity.

About a couple of weeks ago PATTERSON returned. SCRUGGS, on being informed of the fact, got a double-barreled shot-gun and started in quest of him but met his brother FOSTER Monday evening;

the two bear a striking resemblance. SCRUGGS saw him and cried out, "Ah, yes! I want to see you!" PATTERSON, knowing his mission replied, "You are mistaken in the man." At this juncture SCRUGGS brought his gun to a level and saying, "I know better than that,:" discharged both barrels into PATTERSON'S body killing him instantly.

SCRUGGS left the country. He is about sixty years old and crippled by rheumatism.

ELK RIVER

Taken from The Fayetteville Observer May 8, 1879 p.2 Column 2

In the early settlement of French Lick (now Nashville) the Indians committed many predations upon the settlers, and one of the favorite modes with the Indians of annoying the settlers was to steal and carry off their horses, and this practice of theirs had been so vigorously and consistently pursued that by the beginning of the year 1781 the whites had lost about all of their horses. Notwithstanding these depredations were of so frequent occurrence the whites were in ignorance as to where the depredators lived. Early in 1781 three men, one named ELLIS, one MULHERRIN and the other's name is unknown, were sent out to ascertain where the depredators lived. On leaving French Lick they went nearly south-east and crossed Cumberland mountains. One day they heard the voices of children at play; they then stopped and concealed themselves until night and from their place of concealment saw several Indians pass.

At night they found a drove of horses belonging to the Indians. There seemed ten or twelve of them, but were forced to leave some of them behind. On their way back when they came to the river we now call Elk river they saw at the edge of an island in the river an elk and fired at him. It was from this incident that Elk river received its name, which it has ever since borne...

These men were doubtless the first white men who had crossed the waters of the noble Elk. In 1784 a company of locaters, about 30 in number, left Nashville and came through the unsettled wilderness and crossed the Elk 10 or 12 miles above where Fayetteville now stands, and came down on the south side of the river, to about opposite the present site of Fayetteville. It was on this expedition that the land on which Fayetteville now stands was located by _____ NORRIS, and Norris Creek took its name from the fact that he had made a location at the mouth of the Creek. These locations were entered in the land office of JOHN ARMSTRONG, and grants were procured, but the whites were prohibited from making any settlement on Elk River, the land belonging to the Cherokee Indians until 1805, when the Indians ceded it to the whites by treaty. Soon after this twenty settlers flocked to the rich valley of the Elk, and in the year 1809 the legislature of the state authorized the organization of Lincoln county.

EARLY TIMES IN LINCOLN COUNTY

When the whites first visited or had any knowledge of the territory that constitutes the County of Lincoln, there were no Indians making their homes in all North Alabama, or Southern Middle Tennessee; but it was almost yearly visited by the Cherokees for the purpose of hunting the game which was abundant in these regions.

There was no battle ever fought between the whites and the Indians in the country that constitutes Lincoln County. In April, 1784, the Indians killed RANDEL GENTRY near Nashville, and CURTIS WILLIAMS, THOMAS FLETCHER and his son near the mouth of Harper; COL. ROBERTSON (afterward GEN ROBERTSON) ordered CAPT. JOHN RAINS to raise a force and pursue them. RAINS, after raising sixty men, set out on their trace, which led them across Mill creek, Big Harper and across Duck River at the fishing ford, then across Elk river at the mouth of Swan creek in this county, then into the barrens and to Flynt river.

Becoming convinced that they could not overtake the Indians they left their trail and turned their course westward until they came to McCuthin's trace, then they turned northward and before they reached Elk river they discovered the trace of Indians going toward Nashville, and at the river where McCuthin's trail crossed, near Latitude Hill, they discovered the Indians' camping grounds that had been occupied the night previous; they continued their march for six miles after crossing the river and camped for the night, CAPT. RAINS having sent two or three of his men forward to see if the Indians were near enough to hear his company cutting wood or talking (a precaution wisely taken.)

The next morning they continued their pursuit and in the evening they came to the place where the Indians had camped the night before. The Indians had cleared the brush and leaves away and had a dance; they had driven small pins down around the dancing ground and placed small poles in the forks and rested their guns against these poles, which circumstance shows that they regarded themselves in danger of being attacked by the whites. CAPT. RAINS crossed Duck river at the mouth of Fountain creek and camped about 2 miles from the river.

Renewing their march next morning, after going about 6 miles they came upon the Indian camp and fired into it, killing only one man. This is about the only instance we have of an expedition of the whites passing through what is now Lincoln County in quest of the Indians until 1812, when the county considerably settled up.

In 1794 an expedition, known as "Ore's Expedition," was made against the Cherokees, in which the Indian villages of Nichajach and Running Water south of the Tennessee river were burnt and many warriors killed. There were about 500 men in this expedition, they set out from Nashville on September 7th, camped the first night at the Indian camp called Black Fox; they crossed Barren fork of Duck river near the old Stone Fort and crossed Elk river at the place where Caldwell's bridge stood in the year 1823. After the destruction of these two Indian towns the troops returned by the same route; when camped at Fennison's springs on their return a soldier by the name of LEMAN climbed a tree in his sleep and fell out, wounding himself so that he died.

If the writer's information is correct, the GEN. RAINS who fell at the battle of Murfreesboro was a descendant of the CAPT JOHN RAINS, who led the Indian expedition through this county in 1784.

MCMULLIN/MCMULLEN/MCMILLIN/MCMILLEN

(6) NANCY W. MCMILLIN was born June 10, 1822 (gravestone) (1821, Bible record.) She married Oct. 19, 1861, Tippah co., HARDIN HASTON HOPPER as his 3rd wife. HARDIN H. HOPPER married 1st, ca 1832 LCT to SARAH MATHIS, dau. of THOMAS MATHIS & ELIZABETH CHILDS (dau. of HEZEKIAH CHILDS & SARAH BEVELS.) Their children were JANE, THOMAS, JOHN, WILLIAM, MARTHA ELIZABETH, wife of M.J. RENFROW, & SILAS WRIGHT HOPPER. This use of the name WRIGHT for a middle name leads me to think that the HOPPERS may also be connected to some of the LCT WRIGHTS. HARDIN H. HOPPER'S parents are unknown. There is a Bible record which lists the following, possibly his brothers and sister; WILLIAM HOPPER born 2 Jan. 1801; NATHANIEL HOPPER born 6 Feb. 1803; JAMES HOPPER born 22 Sept. 1805; JANE HOPPER born 12 Feb. 1809; HARDIN HOPPER born 24 May 1811; PLEASANT HOPPER born 15 Jan. 1815. WILLIAM, PLEASANT and HARDIN all came to Tippah co. HARDIN H. HOPPER born. 1811 married 2nd SARAH MEEKS ca 1848, Tippah co. and had 2 children. MARY F. married 1st J.M. CLARK and 2nd T.H. GRAY; and SARAH ANN died. young. NANCY W. MCMILLIN, 3rd wife of HARDIN H. HOPPER had 2 children: 1-ELIZA CALDONIA, who married FRANKLIN PEIRCE KEITH, son of STERLING YANCY KEITH and ELIZA JANE JONES, who also came from LCT; 2- HARDIN JOSEPH HOPPER 1865-1957, who also married 3 times and reared a large family at Falkner, Tippah co., MS.

(7)JOSEPH JEFFERSON MCMILLIN (See later)

(8) SUSAN JEMIMA MCMULLIN/MCMILLIN was born 28 Dec. 1823 (Bible record) or 1828 (census records LCT.) She is believed to have married 1st ca 1850-51 Tippah co. to JAMES M. JAMES, son of NEWBERRY JAMES, SR. and wife ELIZABETH GILMORE, who moved from LCT to Tippah co. Tippah marriage records before 1857 are lost, so there is no proof. JAMES M. JAMES, who died in the Civil War, and his wife SUSAN J. had 5 children: a-JOSEPH THOMAS JAMES, who married JULIA ADELINE BRYANT of Tippah co.; b-JOHN BERRY JAMES, who married MOLLIE CAROLINE DAVIS, dau of his step-father and moved to TX; c- ELIZABETH JANE 1856-1866, buried at Liberty Cemetery, Tippah co.; d-MARTHA S.; e-MARY ETTA JAMES, who married WILLIAM MCBRIDE. SUSAN J. MCMILLIN JAMES married 2nd JOHN DAVIS 26 Nov. 1872, Tippah co. They were living in Hardeman co., TN 1880. She died ca 1899 and was buried in an unmarked grave in Liberty Cemetery, northwest of Falkner, MS. (References for this family are LAURAYNN POWERS, Eagle Lake, TX and JO ANN RIDDINGS, Durant, OK.)

(9)SARAH JANE, the only one missing on the Bilbe record, was born 12 June 1830 LCT. She married ca 1851 Tippah co., JACOB BROWN AUTRY, as his 2nd wife. She moved to TX with her children and died 29 Nov. 1891 in Caldwell co., where she was buried in Humphrey Cemetery. She had three children: a-MARY JANE AUTRY (1851-1946), married 1865 Tippah co. to GEORGE MIFFIN DALLAS LUKER. They moved to TX after the 1870 census. b-MARTHA C. AUTRY. c-WILLIAM JOSEPH AUTRY 1856-1926, married 1879 TX, to ADDIE WILLAR HARGIS. (This family is documented in The Family and Descendants of CAPTAIN JOHN AUTRY by MAHON BLAIR AUTRY, 1964.)

JOSEPH JEFFERSON MCMILLIN (7) was born 7 March 1826, in LCT, the son of JOSEPH MCMULLEN and JANE WRIGHT, and grandson of WILLIAM and wife, MARTHA. He came to Tippah co., MS between 1845-50 (census.) The census lists his mother, JANE, aged 67; his brother ANDREW JASPER; and his sisters, NANCY W., SUSAN J., and SARAH J. Also an ELIZABETH aged 10, unidentified.

JOE MCMILLIN purchased land with his brother, ANDREW J., in 1856. In 1860 ANDREW J. "JAP" is in household No. 921 with a wife, CAROLINE and son NEWTON J. JOE J. and his mother JANE are in household No. 921 with no one else listed. Where was NANCY W., who did not marry until 1861: SUSAN J and SARAH J. were already married. In 1862 JOE enlisted in WALTHALL'S Brigade as a pvt. Co. A, 34th Inf. CSA. He joined the Pleasant Hill (now Pine Hill) Primitive Baptist church, Norton road, Ripley, MS (ca 2 miles from my home) in Sept. 1865, by experience and baptism (Church records.) On 8 Mar. 1866, he married SUSAN CATHERINE "KIT" WRIGHT, widow of JESSE BYRD, who died during the Civil War. She was the daughter of NATHANIEL H. WRIGHT and his wife, DOROTHY BLAIR, and was JOE'S second cousin. The WRIGHT family came from Kentucky to LCT, back to Calloway co., KY, then to Marshall co., MS and on to Tippah co. by 1845. KIT had a young son, GEORGE M. BYRD. The 1866 state census reflects this with JANE MCMILLIN as head of the household: 1 male 0-10 (GEORGE BYRD); 1 male 40-50 (JOSEPH J.); 1 female 20-30 (KIT); 1 female 80-90 (JANE MCMILLIN.)

His small farm was located just north of Falkner and the land remained in the family until about three years ago. He is on the 1870 census and in 1874 is found in G.H. SUTHERLANDS Complete List of Tax Payers West Tennessee & Northern Mississippi, as residing at "Falkner Station."

Falkner Station was named for COL. WILLIAM FALKNER (grandfather of the author WILLIAM FAULKNER) who founded the railroad around which the FALKNER Community developed. It ran from Ripley to Middleton, Tennessee originally.

J.J. MCMILLIN was one of the Judges (election holders) at Falkner for the democratic Primary election Aug. 14 and 28, 1880. In 1912 the Tippah co. Confederate Reunion met at Falkner. Among those present was J.J. MCMILLIN whose picture can be recognized by long flowing white beard. He died April 5, 1913 and was buried at Little Hope Primitive Baptist Church cemetery west of Falkner. Many of his descendants became members of Southern Baptist Convention churches.

My mother, VELMA MCMILLIN DUNCAN, remembered her grandparents. She was especially close to "GRANDPA JOE." Her grandmother SUSAN CATHERINE "KIT" died in 1910 when Mother was five. She does remember KIT'S visits to their home and walking part way home with her because she became forgetful and would wander away. "KIT" was born 21 July 1836, Marshall co., MS and died 25 Dec. 1910 Falkner, MS. Mother remembered snow on the ground when they took her body by wagon to Little Hope for burial. They bundled up in quilts and had a bucket of fire in the wagon as they rode the mule-drawn wagon the six or seven miles to the graveyard.

KITT WRIGHT MCMILLIN married 1st 9 Aug. 1860 Tippah co. JESSIE BRYD. Their son 1-GEORGE MURRY BYRD (1861-1938) married NETTIE J. MCWILLIAMS. They reared a large family at Walnut.

The children of JOE MCMILLIN and KITT follow:

(1) JOSEPH NATHANIEL MCMILLIN (1866-1941) married ANGIE S. LAWRENCE. He was a Baptist minister who pastored churches in Tippah co., Jackson, Louisville, and Hattiesburg, MS. He taught at the Blue Mountain Female Academy, now Blue Mountain College, a MS Baptist College located in Tippah co. In Hattiesburg he was head of the English Department at what is now The University of Southern Mississippi.

(2) MARTHA JANET "NETTIE" (1869-1958) married CHARLES H. HORTON and reared a large family east of Tiplersville in the Providence Baptist Church community, Tippah co.

(3) JAMES MARSHALL (1872-1943) married GLENNIE PEGRAM and reared his family north of Falkner on a farm adjoining my grandfather's place.

(4) LOUELLA ANN was born and died 1872, a twin to JOE.

(5) WILLIAM ANDREW (1875-1970) married INEZ SMITH and reared his very large family at Falkner on the home farm. AUNT "NEZZIE" was from the SMITH family who also came from LCT.

(6) PORTER SAMMONS MCMILLIN (1877-1958) married LETTIE MATHIS, daughter of TURNER MATHIS and his 2nd wife, MARGARET JANE CROOK. They lived north of Falkner, where the railroad ran through the farm, as well as Muddy Creek. They were active in the Falkner Baptist church and in community affairs. Their children were: VELMA MCMILLIN DUNCAN (MRS. LOWREY C.) who died in 1991; PEARL CROOK MCMILLIN who died young; RIVERS MCMILLIN RENFROW (MRS. CLAUDIE) of Water Valley MS; ESTELLE MCMILLIN SHAPPLEY (MRS. LESLIE) of Memphis, TN.

ADDENDUM

JAMES MCMULLIN (iv) and wife, DICEY CHITWOOD had 8 children: 1-JAMES 2-SQUIRE (1800-1862-5) married ELIZABETH _____. A descendant is JIM MCMULLIN, Stanton, TN; 3-WILLIAM 4-JOSEPH 5-PERRY or BERRY 6-NANCY 7-BETSEY 8-SALLIE. Both JAMES and DICEY are believed buried in Wright Cemetery LCT. The deposition of MRS. RACHEL MCCRAKEN 1886, Giles co., TN so states. She also said the Wright Cemetery was once known as Pond Spring Cemetery.

WITCH STORY

Written by ROBERT ALLEN GRAY, Green St., Fayetteville, TN 37334. As told to him by MRS. FENTON LOCKER, who was born in 1854.

About 1850 somewhere on Pea Ridge (the Yukon-Camargo area) there lived a strange woman named MRS. ARNOLD. She would prey on her neighbors for food etc. If she asked for milk and didn't get it, the cow might go dry. If she wanted vegetables and didn't get them, the garden would fail. She was so strange that people thought she was an old witch.

One woman, MRS. CUMMINGS was not afraid of her. MRS. CUMMINGS killed a beef and was peddling it out, when old MRS. ARNOLD demanded her to give her a quarter of the beef. MRS. CUMMINGS refused to give MRS. ARNOLD the beef. MRS. ARNOLD told MRS. CUMMINGS that she would not live to eat any of the beef. About thirty minutes later when MRS. ARNOLD got home, she took terribly ill and felt like she would die.

A neighbor told MRS. CUMMINGS that MRS. ARNOLD had bewitched her and the only way to break the curse was to put some of MRS. CUMMINGS urine in a bottle, hang it in the chimney and when the last drop dried up MRS. ARNOLD would die.

Also, if any of the CUMMINGS family talked to MRS. ARNOLD the curse would fall on that person. MRS. ARNOLD came to see MRS. CUMMINGS. She rode a horse and was very sad, but no one talked to her.

When the last drop of urine evaporated, MRS. ARNOLD did die. MRS. PHOEBE ABLES DENTON went to help lay MRS. ARNOLD out. The women found strange objects that MRS. ARNOLD-they believed-used for witchcraft. They went to the smoke house to get some swiveled apples to eat, and found thirteen black cats.

They buried MRS. ARNOLD, then years later they moved her body to Alabama. They found the body of MRS. ARNOLD petrified.

MT. CARMEL CHURCH

Contributed by PEGGY PERRY OLIVER, 2604 Ramblewood Dr., Carrollton, TX 75006.

NOTE: This church record was sent to her by HASKELL RODEN, now deceased. MR. RODEN wrote: "(This was copied by) MRS. RUTH CUNNINGHAM MORGAN of eastern Lincoln county. She had copied the names only of the members of the Old Carmel Baptist Church. MRS. MARY LOU SMITH DAVIS aged 80 had permitted her to copy them...This church was organized in 1812. It was a Primitive Baptist but did not associate with the other churches in the Elk River Association."

"Some notes by RUTH MORGAN

1st entry dated Nov.12, 1816 in Book I

Last entry dated Oct. 22, 1881. J.H. NELSON, Moderator, J.T. HARDEN, Church Clerk.

Other notes June 22, 1839."

Evidently the church made an "inventory" of members in 1827. The list of male and female members was marked up for dismissals, etc. The male and female member list was done by the same person down to the end of the first page and then it looks as if (possibly) each person signed his own name. There is definitely different handwriting in the male list 34 through 57. Females 34 through 60 were all done by the same person - probably the same person who did the first page.

MRS. RACHEL MOORE

Taken from The Fayetteville Observer June 29, 1893

Mrs. RACHEL MOORE died at Howell, of old age, Monday, June 26, 1893, at the age of 82 years. She was born September 23, 1810, and was married to ANDY MOORE December 4, 1828. MRS. MOORE was a member of the Presbyterian church and was a model, Christian woman, all of her deeds and acts conforming to the strict teachings of the church of her choice. The memory of her gentleness and kindness

will always be a comfort to her family and friends and her godly life a light to their pathway. We extend our sympathy to the

CARRIGAN vs MCDOWELL

Fayetteville Observer June 22, 1893

Last week COL. JOE G. CARRIGAN was arrested by a deputy marshal on the charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. The Colonel gave bond for his appearance at the October term of court. Carrigan is said to have been skinned in a business transaction by JOHN H. MCDOWELL and in the hot correspondence that followed CARRIGAN wrote MCDOWELL a postal card as follows:

Fayetteville, Tenn., April 21, 1893

Since writing you this morning I have met a gentleman just from Nashville, and he informed me you have been telling around Nashville that I was for several days going around and begging people to give me whisky and was disgraceful on the streets. If this be so I denounce you as an infamous, cowardly liar, and will ram it down your infamous, rascally throat.

JOE G. CARRIGAN

This is the "obscene" language that was used and which did violence to the dignity of the United States to send through the mails....

PRUETT SHERROD LUTTRELL Bible

NOTE by Mrs. Luttrell

"I have enclosed the information I copied from the Bible we have. I found no publishing or copyright date at the front of the Bible where it is usually found. However, there was a copyright date, 1904, under a picture of Christ at the beginning of the New Testament. This particular Bible belonged to PRUETT SHERROD LUTTRELL, my husband's father. I copied the information as it was on the pages. Here is some additional information. JOHN MARTIN LUTTRELL and THOMAS JEFFERSON LUTTRELL, born in Lincoln county, TN, were brothers and sons of LUCILLA PRUETT and WESLEY LUTTRELL. NORA LUTTRELL'S maiden name was DANIELS. She married PRUETT SHERROD LUTTRELL. While the family Bible shows LUCILLA PRUETT'S birth year as 1822, the 1860 census showed her as being 32 years old."

LCT (LINCOLN CO. TN) PIONEERS Vol XXII No.2 June '93

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH OF HEBRON

Under the care of Tennessee Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Contributed by RUTH MORGAN, Fayetteville, TN 37334

In the spring of 1829 the REV. CUMBERLAND WILSON commenced preaching in the neighbourhood and continued his labours through the summer fall and winter, during which time several persons made profession of religion. The following spring the REV. SAMUEL M. COWAN held a two days meeting, at which time the church was organized composed of 6 members and one Elder.

The REV. WILSON continued to preach for the Church until death removed him from his labours in 1833 during which time fourteen were added to the Church.

In the fall of 1833 a petition was presented to Presbytery for the labours of the REV. W.N.R. GRACY for six months, which was granted. At a meeting held by MR. GRACY and MR. GILBERT a Baptist minister on the 17th and 18th of May 1834 at which meeting nine persons were added to the church and at a meeting in October of the same year six more were added to the church. At a meeting held in May 1835 accessions nine. This meeting closed the labours of MR. GRACY to the congregation. At this meeting the REV. JOHN BELL took charge of the church.

The fall following a piece of land was secured by the church, and an encampment erected thereon and held a campmeeting commencing the Thursday before the third Sabbath in October 1835 and closed the Tuesday morning following at which several made profession of religion. Some short time previous to this meeting MR. JACOB SHOOK and WILLIAM MCKENZIE were chosen and ordained ruling elders in the Church, but death soon removed the former from the Church below to join the Church above, and the latter removed out of the bounds of the society and left the Church to mourn their loss.

(Deed to Church)

In Witness Whereof I hereunto set my hand in said County of Lincoln and affixd my seal this 11th day of July 1835. HENRY MOORES

State of Tennessee, Lincoln County

Personally appeared before me GEORGE W. JONES, clerk of the County Court of said Lincoln County, REUBIN WASHBURN & WILLIAM H. MOORES subscribing witnesses to the within deed who being first duly sworn depose and say they are personally acquainted with HENRY MOORES now deceased & that he acknowledged the same in their presence to be his set deed upon the day it bears date. Witness my hand at office this 4th day of May 1842. G.W. JONES, Clerk
Rec. 7th May 1842.

Nothing very special transpired during the winter of 1835 and summer of 1836. The cause of God seemed gradually to gain strength and influence until the fall of 1836 when a campmeeting was held by REV. BELL and several other ministers at which time or meeting there was a gracious outpouring of the spirit of God and thirty made profession of religion and several joined the Church.

Times continued favorable to the cause of religion until September of 1837 when the Tennessee Presbytery met at the camp ground and held its session in connexion with a campmeeting at the same place, when and where a gracious season of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit was enjoyed and about one hundred made profession of faith in Christ, and fifteen connected themselves with the Church.

The tide of divine influence seemed to run through the neighbourhood and a pleasant state of things continued until October 1838 when another campmeeting was held. 16 added to the Church

At a sacramental meeting in April of the same year 2 added to Church...(Several other meetings mentioned but no names. RM)

The REV. MR. BELL continued to preach to the congregation until he was removed by death in 1842. From the Church below to join the Church above and left the Church to mourn their loss. But our loss is his eternal gain and we can further say that BROTHER BELL was a good father, an affectionate husband, and a faithful minister and no doubt he was prepared to enter into that rest which remains for the people of God.

The Session convened on the 16th day of July 1842. Appointed BROTHER KENNETH MCKENZIE to attend Presbytery and JAMES RENFRO his alternate.

(Cont'd Hebron Church)

In October 1842 there were two accessions to the Church at which meeting the REV. GIBSON took charge of the congregation.

The Session convened on the 8th day of January 1843. Appointed BROTHER JAMES M. BELL to attend Presbytery and BROTHER JAMES RENFRO his alternate.

The campmeeting was held by BROTHER GIBSON and BROTHER ELLIOT and several other ministers embracing the fourth Sabbath in September 1843, at which meeting there was a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit of God, Christians were made to rejoice and about 60 persons made profession of faith in Christ and 21 were added to the Church.

Approved by Presbytery - Sep. 29, 1843

The Session of the Mount Hebron Congregation convened on the first day of June 1844. Appointed KENNETH MCKENZIE and JAMES B. HUDSON to talk with JOHN A. FOLLOW-UP ON "BLOODY BATTLE" LCTP XXII #1 p. 28

Contributed by ROBERT ALLEN GRAY, 303 Green St., Fayetteville, TN 37334

In October 1892 when THOMAS ELIFUS PATRICK was killed in "Bloody Battle" MRS. FENTON LOCKER went to get a tooth pulled that day. The PATRICK home was where C.R. HOWELL & EMILY HOWELL lived at Howell Hill. MRS. OMA GRAY was aged 2 1/2 years old and MRS. JOHN DAVIS went with her. My mother remembered passing a HENDERSON home. (What HENDERSON lived there?) The LOCKER family lived at Rowland Hill were WORTHIE HENDERSON LIVED. MORGAN PETTY lived on FENTON LOCKER'S place and he saw LIFUS PATRICK when he got shot. MORGAN and NAN PETTY had children: NERVIE BELL, WILLIE and COLLIE PETTY, who attended Ropwland Hill School. Where are their descendants? The last we heard that some were in Huntsville and some at Molino.

It is strange my mother remembered so much of Bloody Battle and not three years old. Months or weeks later she remembered those government men from Nashville coming to see her mother, who was expecting, which caused her to miscarry.
